Where Great Things Start Small

A Message From The President & CEO

As one of the premier child and family community organizations in Arizona, CFR understands that achieving great success in life is extremely dependent on what happens during the early years when we are small. But on a larger scale, a future of great things in Arizona is possible, and the development of a society that truly understands the value of prevention and early intervention is still a small work in progress.

CFR promotes the importance of early childhood education, early intervention with children at risk of developmental disabilities, and prevention of child maltreatment by supporting and partnering with families at risk.

A dollar spent wisely on the types of programs and services offered by CFR can save between $4 and $17 in later avoidable costs for things such as prison, remedial education, and/or behavioral health services. Inspiring more people to support prevention remains a vital part of our mission. We are a growing, and diverse organization. This year CFR programs reached over 23,000 people. Over 6,000 families received home visitation services that meaningfully and demonstrably enhanced their knowledge of healthy child development, parenting skills, and awareness of resources and support to manage stress. Thousands of early childhood education professionals attended well designed workshops, trainings, or on-the-job coaching sessions that improved their skills as educators so that children are that much better prepared to succeed in school. To serve everyone appropriately, over half of our staff speaks Spanish, and we enjoy a deserved reputation of providing culturally sensitive and appropriate services in all our programs across the state.

Thank you for your support and advocacy on behalf of children and families.

Eric Schindler, Ph.D.

President and CEO
